Injunction restricts picketers, guards at Rumford mill

Chief Superior Court Justice Robert Clifford late Tuesday afternoon issued a preliminary injunction sought by Boise Cascade limiting picketing by striking paperworkers at Rumford. The injunction, in effect until Aug. 22, limits the number of pickets to 20 at the company's lower gate off Railroad Street and 10 at any other gate. Also, Boise is ordered to keep all security people without a Maine license on its premises unless requested by local law enforcement officials.

Attorneys for the two parties, Local 900 of the International Paperworkers Union and Boise Cascade, ended three days of testimony on Monday concerning a preliminary injunction sought by Boise. The union contended that the company had failed to prove that they (Boise)

NEW CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD of the Bethel Savings Bank Dr. John W. Trinward (right) is shown as he receives the symbolic gavel from the retiring chairman, Edmond J. Vachon. Mr. Vachon had served as chairman of the bank's board of trustees since 1975.

Lightning-caused fire destroys Albany home

The hill-top home of Paul Hausman and Lucy Rogers in Albany was destroyed by a lightning-caused fire last Saturday evening.

According to North Waterford Fire Chief Brad Grover lightning struck the back of the wooden structure, quickly spreading to the rest of the building and a side shed. An incomplete section of the home, constructed of cement blocks and fieldstone was not damaged.

The couple and their two children, Phoebe 10, and Amos 7, none of whom were home at the time of the fire, lost all of their possessions including the weaving and spinning equipment and hand-spun wool owned by Lucy. The windmill, used to generate electricity for the homestead, was apparently not damaged by the fire.

Firefighting efforts were hindered by a steep, muddy road about half a mile long which ascended about 400 feet in elevation to the Hausman residence at the top of the hill. A neighbor, Everett Hatstat, assisted the fire trucks with his skidder to get them to the top of the hill.

According to William Fillebrown, Jr., Waterford fire chief, a total of eight fire trucks and 30 men responded from North Waterford, Waterford and East Stoneham.

Vachon retires as chairman of bank's trustees

At a recent meeting of the Bethel Savings Bank Trustees, Edmond J. Vachon announced his retirement as chairman of the board. Mr. Vachon's association with the bank dates back to 1952. Over the years he has served as corporator, trustee, treasurer, executive vice president, president, and since 1975 as chairman of the board. He has also been a member of the Education Committee of the National Association of Mutual Savings Banks, on the Executive Committee of the Savings Banks Association of Maine, and a Director of the Maine-New Hampshire Savings Bank School. He has seen the local bank grow from assets of $2,324,000 in 1952 to over $44,000,000 in 1986. While relinquishing the responsibilities of chairman, Mr. Vachon will retain membership on the board of trustees.

The board elected as Mr. Vachon's successor Dr. John W. Trinward, another long time and experienced trustee. He has been very active on numerous committees and is exceptionally well

Woodstock outlook on dump optimistic

Two developments with the local dump left the Woodstock selectmen optimistic, they indicated Tuesday evening. Hours at the Greenwood stump dump have been extended on Sundays from 1 to 4. Although the selectmen don't know how this is working out yet, they hope it will add greater flexibility. Also Greenwood and Woodstock are working on a building for newspaper recycling at the transfer station for which they still need Department of Environmental Protection approval.

Commenting on developments, George Hooper noted, "The response to glass recycling is excellent. People are doing a good job in bringing it up and separating. Probably we'll know at the next dump meeting the status of newspaper recycling."

He did note however that in other areas, feedback from the D.E.P. had slowed recently. The D.E.P. did approve the work on sewer systems in the town so far and the roadside spring has been approved for water quality. However the town is still uncertain about a place for sewerage disposal. Noted Hooper, "We need to have a licensed place for sewerage disposal. Until a recent West Paris incident, we didn't know we had to

7th annual old home day at Andover Saturday, Aug. 2

Andover's 7th annual Old Home Day will be held Saturday, Aug. 2, with a parade beginning at 10 a.m. The theme for this year's Old Home Day is "Andover, a Home for All Seasons" which was suggested by Scott Conary who won a contest at the Andover Elementary School.

Music for the parade will be provided by the East Butterfield Militia. The parade will have three divisions under the direction of several chairmen. Merton Perkins will head up the antique auto and custom car division. The horse and pony section will be led by the newly formed Ellis River Riders horse club while the floats will be organized by Fred Emerson. Trophies and ribbons will be awarded in all divisions. The parade will line up at Ricker's field at the foot of Elm Street beginning at 9 a.m.; judging will be at 9:30.

Other events of the day include an auction, barbecue, cow chip flip, flower show, quilt show, arts and crafts displays, flea market, penny carnival, woodsman's contest, pie making contest, Ladies Aid sale, arm wrestling and a dance.

NTL '86 in sixth week

NTL Institute continues into its sixth week of the summer session as more than 120 participants and staff arrived in Bethel on Sunday and Monday for a new group of workshops on the general theme of human resource development.

NTL's informal Sunrise Seminars are also continuing in the Maine Room at 7:30 most mornings. The week started with presentations by staffers Trudi Ferguson on "Femininity and Success" and Walter Sikes on "Changing for Good." Scheduled for the rest of the week are the following presenters and topics:

• Thursday — NLP: Using Your Brain —For a Change, with Andy Ezzell and Barbara Greig.

• Friday — Seed, Cultivate, and Harvest: Leading Democratic Organizations, with Jack Lindquist.

• Saturday — Going Beyond Conflict, with Edie Seashore.

In addition to the morning seminars, this week there will be two special afternoon presentations, also open to the Bethel community. On Wednesday, Paul Blackwood will give a one-hour slide show and talk called, "An International Tour of Maine—The Histories of China, Peru, Norway, Mexico, Denmark, Sweden, and Other Towns in Maine." On Thursday, Elsie Cross will share her ideas on "Strategies for Pluralism—Managing Diversity in Organizations." These talks will be given in the Maine Room at 4 p.m. on both days, and interested persons from the Bethel area are welcome to attend.

Opinions

Union must clarify its position

The striking paperworkers at Boise seem to be isolating themselves behind a barrier of shouting and rhetoric.

The latest instance came late last week when the union told Rumford merchants that they either back the union or face the consequences. One merchant said, after giving in to the union demand, "The union is being unfair. If someone comes into my place to buy [something], they don't take my word for it that it's the right one for them. They want to see what the other guy has. They're going to shop around. Why should I accept the union's position when I don't even know the union's position?"

There are real issues involved in this strike. The basic one is whether or not Boise management will win back the right to tell workers what jobs to do and when. Under recent contracts, managers have had little authority to get workers to do jobs other than the one they were specifically hired to do. This has meant a lot of wages being paid to employees for time spent sitting around.

Boise has proposed a flexible work assignment clause in the "final offer" proposed contract, which would do away with the current abuses. (See last week's Citizen for the company's proposal.)

Union officials have said the proposal goes too far in giving management control over the workers and would eliminate any authority the union itself has over its members. But aside from complaining that the company's proposal goes too far in the opposite direction, union officials have not said what sort of compromise they would be willing to accept.

Thus, the public is left with the impression that the union position is strictly one of obstructionism. The union is losing the battle for public support because its arguments have been strictly negative. The public has no idea what the union's position is on the basic issue.

Union officials have tried to get around this weakness in their position by raising other issues: whether or not it is moral for Boise to hire replacement workers; what will happen to these new workers after a contract is finally signed with the union; whether or not Boise's hired guards are resorting to excessive violence; and whether or not union picketers should be unimpeded in their efforts to harass people crossing picket lines.

Arguments on these issues may make for lively rhetoric, but they are strictly peripheral to the main issue: how far is the union willing to go in restoring rational and reasonable work rules inside the mill.

Americans are, by inclination, against big business and for the little guy—which, in this instance, would be Local #900. But unless the union quickly tells people its position on the contract issue, it will see its support further erode. It's not enough to twist people's arms to win their support. People can think for themselves and want to know what they are supporting. bfw

FLOWER SHOW SATURDAY AT ANDOVER'S OLD HOME DAY

The theme for the flower show during Andover's Old Home Day, Saturday, Aug. 2 is: Andover, a Home for all Seasons, and will feature several categories including:

1. Spring: artificial flowers in an antique container.
2. Summer: (a) summer bouquet; (b) celebrating the Statue of Liberty, 1886-1986 (teenagers only); (c) children's picnic—a dish garden (children under 12).
3. Fall: garden harvest (vegetables).
4. Winter: what Christmas means to you.
5. House plants.
6. Single specimen.
7. Music fills the air—a song title.

Entries will be received at the Historical Society building between 7 and 9:30 a.m., at which time the judging begins. The show will open to the public following the judging and until 4 p.m. Exhibits cannot be removed prior to 4 o'clock, but must be out of the building by 5 p.m. Ribbons will be awarded to first, second and third places and for the best of show.

'Broadway Lights' to open Saturday, Aug. 8

Broadway Lights, a cabaret-style musical revue produced by North Country Productions, Inc., and the Oxford Hills Music and Performing Arts Association, is scheduled to open Friday, Aug. 8, at the Goldstreet Restaurant on Main Street, South Paris.

The seven woman revue, staged and choreographed as a tribute to Broadway's composers and lyricists, features talent drawn from several Maine communities. Performers include Linda Theriault, a veteran cabaret performer from Mexico; Joy Miller, from Portland; Shirli Allen, Oxford; June Sawicki and Jennifer Greenleaf, of Norway; Alison Whitney, from South Paris; and Debi Irons, of West Paris. Ms. Irons, who is also choreographer for the show, brings an international resume to the cast, having performed in Japan, South America, and most recently in San Francisco. The pianist for the production is Virginia Noble, of East Otisfield.

Broadway Lights will be presented Aug. 8, 9, 22, 23, and 29. A dinner theatre production, curtain is at 8:30 p.m. For further information and tickets call Goldstreet at 743-9783. Reservations are suggested.

Letters to the Editor

To the Editor:

The Town of Bethel Board of Selectmen wishes to commend the Bethel Lions Club, Rotary Club, Recreation Board, Outing Club, Fire Department, Bethel Area Chamber of Commerce, Bethel Area Health Center, Bethel Inn and Sunday River Skiway for putting together one of the best ever Mollyckett Day celebrations. In addition, we would like to commend those businesses, individuals and community organizations who participated in the colorful parade, and especially those who made floats for the parade, the various local and area businesses which have long supported Mollyckett Day, and the Bethel Police Department and B.E.A.R.S. who lent their support and back-up to the day's events.

The hard work and dedication that went into making this year's festivities so successful was reflected in the size of the crowds and the quality of the various planned activities and events.

CHAMBER MUSIC CONCERTS CONTINUE AUG. 5

The Sebago-Long Lake Region Chamber Music Festival continues its 1986 series of concerts with its fourth program to be presented on Tuesday, Aug. 5. The concert, under major sponsorship by the Bethel's newest police officer is Terry Perry, who recently graduated from the state police training course.

Faxon Company, Inc., will take place in the Bridgton Academy Chapel, North Bridgton, at 8 p.m.

This concert features music for various combinations of winds, strings, and piano. The opening work, the six part Ricercare from the Musical Offering by J.S. Bach, is scored for oboe, French horn, bassoon, violin, viola and 'cello. Following an early Trio for Strings by Beethoven, the program continues with the lyrical and humorous Sextour for Piano and Winds by Francis Poulenc, the 20th century French composer. Following an intermission, the program will conclude with an unusual Septet for violin, clarinet, flute, bassoon, French horn and piano by Ludwig Spohr, a German composer whose work spans the close of the 18th and the beginning of the 19th centuries.

Participating artists for this concert include: Paul Wolfe, violin; Laurie Kennedy, viola; James Kennedy, 'cello; Judith Pence, oboe; James Pyne, clarinet; Homer Pence, bassoon; John Boden, French horn; Stephen and Frieda Manes, pianists, all well-known to festival patrons; Making his first appearance in North Bridgton will be Randolph Bowman, principal flutist of the Portland Symphony.

W. Paris tax bills late

West Paris tax bills, which are normally out about now, will not be out until mid-October, according to the town office.

Because the assessors are reevaluating all the property in town, extra time is needed for preparing the tax bills. Selectman Judy McLaughlin said most landowners could expect their valuations to increase somewhat.

CORRECTIONS

Inadvertently the name of Joyce Stearns was omitted last week when The Citizen mentioned the members of the Bethel Police Department who were on duty during the Mollyckett Day festivities.

Also, on page nine of last week's issue a pair of picture captions were transposed. The caption appearing under Maine Street Realty's "Statue of Liberty" float should have been under the five kilometer racers "hotfooting it down Broad Street," and vice versa.

PICKETING RULING EXPECTED

would suffer irreparable harm if unrestrained picketing were permitted, a contention with which the company obviously disagreed.

Much of the testimony during the three days of hearings centered around an incident in the Mexico town hall parking lot between strikers and security people in the employ of Boise.

During a break in the court proceedings, union officials said that they had begun giving job applicants flyers recommending that they get a promise from Boise in writing that their jobs are permanent. The flyer notes that if Boise is found guilty of unfair labor practices, union workers would be reinstated at the expense of replacement workers.

According to a Boise spokesman, the company rarely, if ever, signs contracts for individual employees, even for its salaried workers; but (that) for the people who report for work the jobs will be permanent. The company's preference would be for the workers out on strike to come back.

qualified to assume the duties of the chairman.

Dr. Trinward became a corporator of the Bethel Savings Bank in 1954 and has served as a trustee since 1957. He has practiced general dentistry in Bethel since 1952 and has been active in civic and fraternal organizations throughout the community and state. A graduate of the Maine Maritime Academy and Tufts University School of Dental Medicine, he is a past president of the Maine Dental Association, a past member of the North East Regional Board of Dental Examiners. He has served as president of the Maine Division of the American Cancer Society and presently is a director of the Stephens Memorial Hospital, Norway. He is a member of Bethel Lodge #97 AF & AM, the Scottish Rite, and a Past Potentate of Kor Temple AAOSNA. He served several years as a director of the Shriners Boston Burns Institute. Married to the former Margaret Greenleaf of Norway, they are the proud parents and grandparents of three sons, a daughter, and five grandchildren.

In accepting the chairmanship, Dr. Trinward congratulated Mr. Vachon on his many years as chairman of the board and the great growth and success of the bank over that period. He stated that he was pleased that Mr. Vachon would continue to serve as a trustee and anticipated no changes in the administration of the bank which has, and hopefully will, serve the banking needs of the area.

Notes from Adult & Community Education

The SAD #44 Adult Education Learning Center has had three adults pass the GED examination in the past three weeks. Cynitha Scott of West Paris earned her GED on July 22 after several months of hard work on writing skills and math. She plans to enroll in a training program to prepare for employment. The summer session of the Adult Learning Center will run for three more weeks through Aug. 12 at Telstar Regional High School from 6:30-9:30 in the evening. Anyone who would like to take the GED Practice Test or brush-up on reading, writing or math skills is invited to stop in. The Learning Center also provides advice on educational planning to earn a high school diploma through night courses, or help in preparing to seek employment. Call the Adult Education office, 824-2780, weekdays from 9-3, or Cathy Newell, 824-2089. The fall season of the Learning Center and the regular schedule of fall classes will begin the week of Sept. 22. GED testing between Aug. 12 and Sept. 22 is available by appointment.

Many instructors who have participated in SAD #44's Adult and Community Education program will be demonstrating their skills at Sudbury Canada Days at the Moses Mason Museum in Bethel on Aug. 9.

Requests for all classes are being received at the Adult and Community Education office, 824-2780.

Union browbeats store owners into submission

Rumford merchants were seething this week over what they viewed as strongarm tactics by the UPIU Local #900 to get them to support the strike.

One merchant said, "The union is being unfair." Another said, "The union sees they're losing and they're grasping at straws." And yet another said, "The union is ripping apart this town."

In a bitter strike that has literally pitted father against son and brother against brother, the union's latest move to get support for its cause came last week when it insisted merchants put stickers in their windows showing they side with the union.

The Rumford Merchants Association canvassed its membership and told the union that the membership was staying neutral in the strike.

Union supporters told the merchants this was not good enough. "Either you're with us or you're against us," was the union message. Union members would boycott those stores that didn't display the pro-union stickers, the merchants association was told.

At a second meeting last Thursday, the merchants association knuckled under and said the membership would put the union stickers in their windows. The alternatives, one merchant said, were to risk having his windows broken and to face a boycott by the families of union members.

"We're right," he said of the association's original position to remain neutral. "But how right can we stand to be?"

As the strike entered its fifth week, Rumford residents seemed to be longing for peace and quiet. They talked about the noisy nights, cars filled with strikers riding around with horns blaring and baseball bats hanging out of windows. They talked of the traffic jams.

Few talked about the fact that the company is threatening to replace families who have been in the mill for generations. As one man, whose brother is on strike, said, "Those guys walked away from their jobs. They've got nothing to complain about."

Tips on how to avoid getting lost

A recent rash of searches for people lost in the Maine woods has prompted the release of a list of "do's and don'ts" from the Department of Inland Fisheries and Wildlife.

Search and Rescue Coordinator Gary Anderson says this year's wet, soggy weather has created a lush, jungle-like growth in the woods of Maine, restricting visibility and slowing down the progress of people attempting to walk through the woods. The thick growth of leaves and plants, along with dark, foggy weather, also obscures landmarks and makes trails difficult to follow, Anderson warns.

Anderson suggests that anyone planning to hike in the woods allow more time than normal to reach their destinations. And he offers the following tips on avoiding getting lost or becoming overdue:

- Always tell someone where you are going, and when you expect to return.
- Don't hesitate to change your plans when weather or factors intervene, rather than attempting to press on.
- When operating as a group, place several people in supervisory roles, with one person in over-all charge, have a plan of movement, and be sure all are familiar with it.
- If someone becomes lost in your group, you can initiate the Maine State Police Search and Rescue plan by calling the following emergency numbers: DDuring weekdays, call the Fish and Wildlife regional offices at the following numbers: Ashland, 1-800-322-4011; Augusta, 1-800-322-3606; Bangor, 1-800-322-2033; Gray, 1-800-322-1333; Greenville, 1-800-322-9844.
- Evenings and weekends, call the Maine State Police: Augusta, 1-800-452-4664; Houlton, 1-800-432-7384; Orono, 1-800-432-7381; Scarborough, 1-800-482-0730.

GILBERT MANUFACTURING CO., in Locke Mills, has opened an outlet store for its wood products. The shop features everything from cutting boards to salt and pepper shakers to slab sticks to coat pegs. Judy Gilbert is the manager, and her daughter, Kim Gilbert (above), is the sales clerk. The store is open 9-5 Monday through Friday. Mrs. Gilbert says Thursday evening and weekend hours will be added to the schedule. The grand opening is Wednesday, July 30 (today).

have a legal place. I'm not sure what the deadline is to get one. It definitely is a problem." Also regarding the town's sand pile, he observed, "We haven't heard any more about the sand pile. The state will get back to us. We do know any funding has been turned down by the state."

In other developments, Hooper noted those constructing the new school had been issued a stump dump permit. The recreation committee is doing well with swimming lessons. An assistant instructor has been added due to increased enrollment. Hooper also observed that the conservation commission was very active on a regular basis. "The committee is doing a tremendous amount of work on water quality. They meet at least once a month and touch base with us."

Requests for gun permits remain stable. People come in regularly asking for renewals. Also the highway crew has done some work on the Gore Road and on the Historical Society parking lot as well.

State approves hydro project in West Paris

The state Board of Environmental Protection late last week approved a proposal to construct a 50-kilowatt hydroelectric project on the Little Androscoggin River, in West Paris.

The proposal was submitted by John Crouch, Jr., of Naples, who owns about nine acres around Bisco Falls—the proposed site.

He plans to utilize the existing falls in his project. He also plans to re-install three-foot-high wooden flashboards along a 35-foot section of spillway, install a screen and intake structure and a four-foot-diameter steel penstock 200 feet in length. The turbine-generator will be housed in a 12-foot by 12-foot concrete and wood structure. There should be a 20-foot head of water between the top of the dam and the turbine.

The project also calls for the construction of a fish ladder so that Atlantic salmon can make their way upstream for spawning.

The electricity produced by the hydro project is to be sold to Central Maine Power Company and would replace the equivalent of 360 barrels of fuel in a generating plant.

Reading program at Andover Library during August

In conjunction with the Maine Summer Reading Program, Open Books, Open Doors, Carol Littlehale of the Andover Public Library has announced that Ellen Greeke will be presenting a reading program in August. Many activities have been planned for each Thursday afternoon from 1-2:30 in the children's room.

A prize will be given to children participating on Tuesday, Aug. 5, from 1-4. Short movies will be shown on that day also.

On Aug. 7, all children are encouraged to bring their collections of seashells, rocks, bird nests, etc., for Maine Treasure Day. Mrs. Greeke will present a Maine author. The craft will be thumb-print bookmarks.

Doorways and Keystones is the theme for Aug. 14. There will be a scavenger hunt in the library. The children will have the opportunity to make rock crevices.

Dodie Greaney, a new-comer to Andover, will present a nature program on Aug. 21. Weather permitting, activities could include a nature walk.

At the closing program on Aug. 28, there will be an award presentation and movies, followed by refreshments.

Mrs. Littlehale and Mrs. Greeke will be stressing the quality, not the quantity, of books that the children will be reading.

In addition to the weekly programs, there will be an ongoing "Write Your Own Story." Every time a child returns a book that he/she has read, they will be able to add one sentence for each book. The complete story will be read the last day.

The identity of several books will be concealed in a treasure chest. Clues each week will help to unfold the mystery. There will be a drawing from all the correct answers for the books during the final presentation.

The library is already gearing up with posters, made by Andover Elementary School students, adorning the walls.

The program is open to all children in kindergarten through sixth grades.

THIS WEEK AT THE Moses Mason House

All members and friends of the Bethel Historical Society are reminded that the August monthly meeting will be held on the seventh at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a program dealing with the history of Gould Academy which this year commemorates 150 years. Society Director Stanley Howe will present a slide program on Gould's long history and there will be at this meeting the opening of a special exhibit on Gould featuring a variety of photographs and artifacts from 1836 to the present. Anyone having memories of Gould is especially urged to attend and share them with those present. All society meetings are open to anyone interested and the general public is cordially invited to attend. Special refreshments will follow the program.

The Bethel Historical Society's 1986 Endowment Campaign goal came another giant stride closer with help from the following individuals: James and Josephine Monahan, Gilead, in memory of "Mush" McMillin; Clyde and Bertha Stevens, Bethel; Adeline Dexter, Bethel; Jean and Norman Ness, Orono; Charles and Mary Keoskie, Bethel; Lester and Bessie Bennett, Rumford; Archie and Jane Young, Bethel, in memory of Dale C. Saturday morning and rather a hazy, humid one. Cloudy and not quite as hot as yesterday but expect it will be. Have my hands full as I have my smallest granddaughter for the week while her folks and older sister are away on a trip. Kariann doesn't like to ride for such long distances, so is with Grandma for the week and will probably get the better of me. Too hot to sleep good last night, so we are both tired.

Have been working on a crocheted top for some time, without a picture to see what it is supposed to look like when done, and it is hard to do. I have gotten it pretty well on the way so hope to have it finished soon and start something else. If you crocheted and have gotten hold of a pattern that was hard to follow, you know what I mean. I can work them out better if I know what they are to look like when done, but without a picture, it is much harder. Glad I have done lots of crocheting or it wouldn't have ever gotten done.

Russell sometimes speaks humorous monologues and have been working on a blouse and other things for him a little this week. He has volunteered to do one of his monologues for the talent show that the Tri-Town Ambulance is putting on Aug. 16 and 17. I believe those are the right dates.

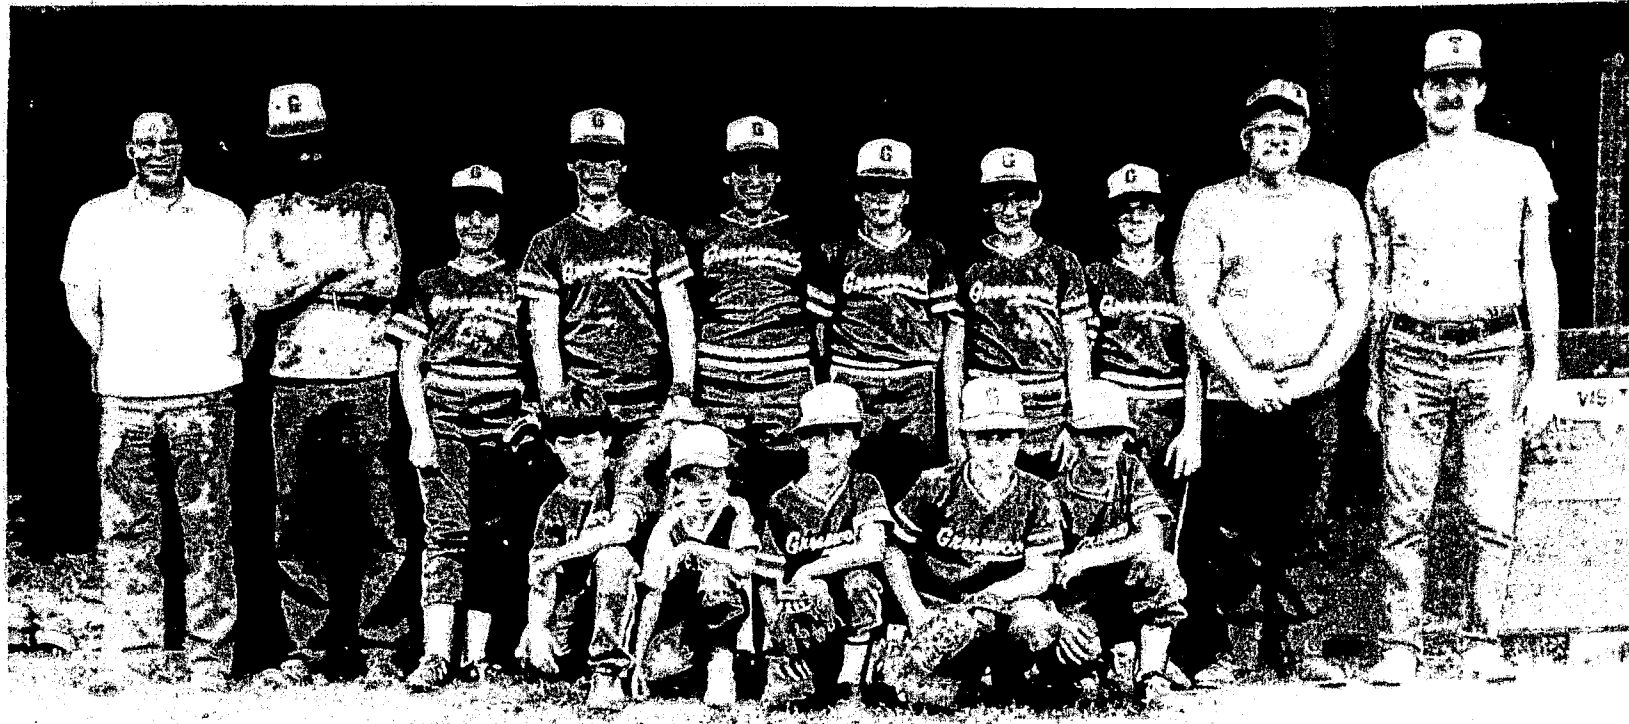

When we went to South Paris last Saturday, we got stopped by a police officer and couldn't understand why. Much to our dismay, we had overlooked the inspection sticker. Being put up behind the mirror, one doesn't see it very much so we hadn't seen that it had expired. No great harm as we got it done on Monday and all is well. Just wish they would put those little things where one would be more apt to see them and know when the next inspection was due. Going a year makes it harder to remember. Maybe that is because I'm getting older but it is very easy not to see it and get things done when they should be.

There are still some logs out back to be sawed and Lawrence and the gentleman who is sawing them have been rather busy. It takes longer than one would expect. There is one thing about it, Lawrence is getting the benefit of the slabs and edgings. I had never seen a machine that could saw lumber at one's home before and it is interesting to see it work.

Have finally had some peas from the garden and they tasted real good. It took longer to get them this year than last. Sees as though there are more insects around and all are immune to the dusts and insecticides. I know it has cost Russell a lot to get what he has used and the bugs are still doing better than we are. It can be so disgusting to have insects ruin all the work one puts into a garden. If only we could find out just what they were, maybe we could win, but so far no luck.

We have been feeding the birds this summer and have had a lot of amusement watching them at the feeders. Yellow finches flit around and where there were only two to begin with, there are many more now and some are changing color to look like they will when fully matured. Purple finches and house finches have visited also and give us lots of enjoyment. Blue jays, mourning doves and woodpeckers and some others seem to like to come and pick up what they can. As I haven't been able to go to grange lately due to allergies I really enjoy watching the birds. Seems as though the bigger part of the time I am going to doctors and that isn't for enjoyment.

Thought today was to be like yesterday according to weather reports but as it looks so much like rain, I didn't do the Stan and Alan Wilson, Gideon Dorman and Gloria Wilson have visited Irene Wilson this week.

Robert Deegan, Saco, has been staying with his sister Florence Beck at Randolph, N.H., during his vacation. They were down for supper with Joe and Leah Deegan on Thursday.

Joe and Leah and granddaughter, Koral Smith, went to the Newton & Tondels mill picnic held at Bear Pond in Waterford.

washing I had planned to do. Looks more like rain than sunshine so will spend my time doing other things. Hope to be able to go to a wedding reception tonight for Yvette Yates and her groom, Joel.

Haven't had any news given to me from the neighbors, so don't know what is going on in the neighborhood. Peggy went back to Massachusetts on Monday after spending Sunday with her daughter Myrna and husband Whitey.

I went to North Bridgton on Wednesday and again on Friday as I was having one of my allergy attacks. Other than that we have spent most of the time at home doing what we could. Have put some greens in the freezer and hope to have some peas to put in also. Has anyone frozen zucchini so they know how? I have frozen the ground up zucchini for bread but want to freeze some this year to use in casseroles. We like them so much. One can add so many good things to zucchini and make delicious casseroles of many kinds. I plan to try something so as to have some but would like any information anyone has on the subject. If all goes well, we will have zucchini to spare.

With a little one around, I guess I better call this enough for this time and hope for a good week with Kariann. I met some folks in the grocery store Friday that I haven't seen for a long time and was so glad to see them. It is a good place

Mrs. Bradley Nelson, Christa and little Joel of Winslow were visitors here at their summer home over the weekend. They also visited with her parents, the Rex Adams at North Waterford.

Mrs. Frances Grant has been busy the past week hauling hay from West Paris. Quite nice through the middle of the day, but very cool nights and mornings for July.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Yemma visited his son and family in New Hampshire Sunday. Mrs. Nancy Bryan of Sweden took her aunt, Grace Nelson, to see her doctor Monday.

Mrs. Geneva Tripp took me to see my doctor in Harrison Tuesday.

Mrs. Betty Stearns visited Mrs. Minerva Dudley at the hospital in Bridgton Friday and reported she was some better, as she can sit up some now.

Donald Files of Melrose, Mass., has arrived at his camp on Lake Kewadin for the summer months. His brother John is staying at the Files camp on the same lake.

Upton

By ARLINE BERNIER

Dr. and Mrs. George Douran and Peter of Ithaca, N.Y., have been house guests at the Richard LeComte home during the past week.

Elsie Fuller celebrated her 75th birthday with gifts and cards from friends. Goldie Bergeron of Temple, her son, Myron of Brunswick, her daughter-in-law, Audrey, and her sister, Helen, were guests one day at the Bergeron Home. The state requires a training course for folks wanting a hunting license. How about one for folks aspiring to be taxpayers? It might include instruction on pronunciation of local place names. For instance Berlin not as in German, Saco not as it's spelled and Umbagog with accent on the second syllable. Next maybe, some emphasis on common sense and good manners in regard to parking vehicles so as not to obstruct traffic. Last weekend several vehicles parked in the middle of the right of way or left very little room for other vehicles using the road.

Bertha Burnham came to Upton as a teen-ager to work for Isabelle Fuller. She attended school here for a year, then married Claud Lombard. They lived here until Claud's death then Bertha went to work for the Kenyons in New Jersey. Sometime later she married Ben Lewis and lived the rest of her life in Farmington, N.H. Bertha was steady and dependable, always positive, took care of Dr. Abbott through his last lingering illness. Several years ago she was in the hospital but instead of the usual groans, complaints and details that most of us regale our friends with, Bertha said, "I had a good time in the hospital." This remark stayed with me and when I was hospitalized last year, stayed by me. Thank you Bertha, for everything. You can't read my column any more, but I know where you are and I'll see you later.

HOLDING BENEFIT AUG. 3

The Bethel Bridge Club is sponsoring a special night of contract bridge on Sunday, Aug. 3, at 7:30 p.m. in the south dining room at The Bethel Inn.

The club is inviting everyone in Bethel and the surrounding communities to join together to help Little Amy Moran get well again. She is the year-old granddaughter of Amy Farrar and Ray Moran of Bethel. Her father, Peter, is a graduate of Gould Academy.

Players need not be paired in advance as there will be fill-ins available. Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded.

Little Amy Moran is suffering from Biliary Atresia, a severe liver disorder which can cause cirrhosis, growth failure and early death. She has already undergone a series of exploratory operations leading to the possibility of a liver transplant.

For further information call the Bethel Inn at 824-2175 or contact Carolyn Brooks at 824-2707.

North Paris

By EVELINE B. VATCHER

Don't tell anybody but it is hot and has been for a week. Isn't it lovely that summer is here at last? The heat wave has boosted our garden and we are glad.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Boutain from Hammet, Calif., visited Joe and Norma Reidy and Mrs. Pearl Clough from Dalton, Fla. Mrs. Boutain is a cousin to Mrs. Clough. They left their home on June 15 and will visit each state in the United States and they expect to return to California Sept. 15. They have a lovely traveling home so that saves motel bills.

Allen and Karen Bondeson, Chelmsford, Mass., called on her uncle, Joe Vatcher and Aunt Eveline. They went on to Livermore Falls to visit his aunt, then went to Nova Scotia on the ferry out of Bar Harbor. Next week they will be at Bridgton with Karen's parents for their last week of vacation.

Comelius McAuliffe spent five days at the Maine Conservation School at Bryant Pond. He and a 12 year old nephew of Howard Miller from Poland were sponsored by the Mollycodd Sportsman's Club of West Paris. We are anxious to hear his reports. We just know they had a good time and make a lot of friends. We wonder if Cornie helped the cook as he is always hungry.

Mrs. Marie Cordwell came home by ambulance Tuesday. Her sister will return to her home in Mississippi Saturday morning by plane.

Callers at Lawrences: Karen Merrill and James Edgar Coffin, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Records, Ellen Coffin, Eva Judkins, Arlene and Mike Abbott, Margaret Stevens, Pat Haney, Joe Kalinowski, Mrs. Hazel Collette and friend Rena.

Mrs. Faye Abbott has returned to her home and her mother, "Honey" Newton of Mechanic Falls is with her for a few days to make her toe the mark.

Joe Vatcher had a gift of a year old beagle puppy. He looks like a twin to Joe's lady beagle except he has a grey color with black dots around his neck (blue tick). He will have a new name as Joe doesn't like "Toodle-oo" for a boy!

Mrs. Broberg who has been living in Massachusetts for a few years is having a new house build near the home of her son, David and family. We will be glad to welcome her back to our neighborhood.

Mrs. Helen Berthold and four children, Angela, Joanna, Christopher and Cynthia, Saugus, Mass., spent the weekend with her sister, Rhoda Labbe, and visited Storyland in New Hampshire. Daniel McAuliffe, who had spent three weeks in Saugus, returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vatcher and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reidy visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson at Bridgton Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lambert of Massachusetts were also visitors and Miss Ann Miller, twin sister of Mrs. Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Isley and Robert Jr. left Friday for their home in Rome, N.Y., after two weeks on the farm. Now the trout will be more plentiful.

Baby Ian Isley of Wilton is back on the farm with his grandparents and great grandmother for awhile. He can sit in the shade here instead of roasting in a city apartment.

WEST PARIS' BERYL KUVAJA FOUL TIPS ONE during a recent game at Bethel. The West Paris girls have a berth in the playoffs.

TRUDY BAKER, OF WEST PARIS, beats the tag of Bethel catcher Donna Dorey to score yet another West Paris run last week. Bethel pitcher Lisa Friedlander backstops the play. The visitors clobbered the locals. But Bethel will be in the playoffs nevertheless.

BETHEL PRINCIPAL SERVING AS EVALUATION TEAM MEMBER

Nancy Davis, principal of Ethel Bisbee and Crescent Park Schools in Bethel, is in Oakland this week, serving as an evaluation team member of the Maine Assessment Center Program. Operated by the Center for Research and Advanced Study at USM in collaboration with the Department of Educational and Cultural Services, the program is one of several pilot centers created by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. Mrs. Davis will spend the week directing, assessing, and reporting on activities and tasks designed to provide information on the leadership skills of participating school administrator assesses.

shade here instead of roasting in a city apartment. The Vatcher's raspberry patch was tops but the last two days has seen a drastic change due to the lack of water or too much sun. Just can't win.

Remember Homecoming Sunday at the Newry Community Church Aug. 24, at 5 p.m. Bring your picnic lunch and join friends and neighbors on the church grounds. The picnic will be followed by services in the church, with area ministers participating. Ginny Walker will be soloist. Services will be followed by a hymn sing. Regular morning services will be held at 9 a.m.

The selectmen met Tuesday morning. Tax abatements were granted to Stanley Moore on a tractor on which the excise tax had been paid and to P.H. Chadbourne on a piece of property taxed twice due to computer error. The school assessment to M.S.A.D. 44 has been received. The assessment for Newry for FY 87 is $166,655, a 30.8 percent increase over the assessment of $127,385 for FY 86. A treasurer's warrant for the school assessment, road repair work and other current bills was made. The painters have the municipal building ready for the prime coat and have started painting the building. The selectmen will meet next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock.

Louise Tetley, Thelma Lowery, Gilberte Seeley, Karlene Bachelde, Eleanor Davis, Eleanor Morton, Gretchen Wight, Olive Anderson and friend, Marion, were at Norway bowling July 22. Louise Tetley was high scorer. July 16, at Rumford, Thelma Lowery was high scorer, with Nancy Wight second.

The Ladies Circle will have a supper party August 4. The ladies will eat out. The planning board will meet Aug. 4 and start opening and studying the survey questionnaires for the comprehensive plan.

The North Pond Sailing Association held its third regatta of the season Sunday, July 20, on North Pond with the best winds all season. Martha Cross of Dixfield won all the races. The next regatta will be on North Pond at 1 p.m. on Aug. 3.

On Aug. 2 (Saturday), there will be a pot luck supper for the North Pond Sailing Association sailors and their families at Blakney's Cottage (Davista Lodge) beginning at 6 p.m.

There will be a potluck supper for the Greenwood Historical Society at their meeting house on Main Street at 6 p.m. Wednesday, Aug. 6. A business meeting will follow at 7:30 p.m. For those attending the supper please bring a food dish, utensils, and plates, and a lawn or folding chair if you have one.

The 1986 Cancer Fund for Locke Mills totaled $335 and Edward Chase who collected would like to tell everyone who gave that it was greatly appreciated.

The Greenwood Fire Department will meet Tuesday, Aug. 5, at 7 p.m. at the Fire Station.

The Greenwood Fire Department Auxiliary will hold a food sale Saturday, Aug. 16, at Littlefield Beaches to benefit the rather depleted fire relief fund. They would appreciate donations of food for the sale.

Val and Caroline Greene spent the past week at their place on the Howe Hill Road. They spent an active week with their daughter and son-in-law, Linda and Jim Ryan of Marlboro, Mass., which included constructing a new deck for their house (the former Lillian Lapham place) along with finding time for swimming, canoeing and walking. They also entertained the Fuller family of Knoll Road on Tuesday evening.

The Ladies Circle is pleased to announce that their sale was a big success, netting around $450. They appreciate all who participated in any way.

The town was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Robert Zaworski who was here with his wife, Priscilla Ring Zaworski, from Corvallis, Ore., visiting friends and relatives. The town offers his family its sincerest sympathy on their loss.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mills took his sister, Mary, back to Bolster's Mills Sunday after she spent the weekend visiting and attending Mollycodd Day festivities.

Marie and Barry York of Burnt Hills, N.Y., are spending two weeks on Charlotte Cole's camp lot.

Lee Mills entertained his brothers, Clayton of Bethel, and Raymond of Hobbs Pond, Norway, at dinner one day last week.

The Greenwood Fire Department Auxiliary met Tuesday evening with Flossie Bernier, Charlotte Kimball, Mary Stone,

Mr. and Mrs. William Bancroft entertained his sisters at a dinner party last Sunday. Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Laurice Millett, Mrs. Agnes Lahti of Waterford; Miss Phyllis Bancroft from Arlington, Va., and Mrs. Thelma Merrill of Norway. Another sister, Mrs. Velma Dryden of Wilton was unable to be with them.

Mrs. Christine Kimball with her cousin from Yarmouth enjoyed last week touring Quebec City and surrounding areas. Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Rugg have returned home with other couples in their cycling group after spending the past month touring the mid-west.

I spend this weekend visiting relatives in Unity. The highlight of my visit was a ride in my brother's 1928 Model A Ford touring car to Solon to take part in a parade there with 17 other ATOMs (Automobile Treasures of Maine). Although it was foggy and cool I was comfortable in sweater and winter parka and blanket.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Waterhouse hosted a family reunion last weekend at their home here.

Scott Waterhouse and family occupied Jimmy Kimball's cottage this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blaha and children Danny, David and Amy, spent this week at her mother's home here. They are from New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Whitney and friends from Casco visited the Jimmy Kimballs Friday. Their home was heavily damaged in the hailstorm that hit that area last month.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson visited Lawrence Kimball at the Maine Medical Center last weekend.

Dave Salway returned to his work Wednesday after being ill several days over the weekend.

Borrow trouble for yourself, if that's your nature, but don't lend it to your neighbor.—Kipling

Sally Melville, Lorraine Mills, Joanne Cole, Barbara Dunham, Cheryl Young, Malinda Seames, and children, Jerry Bernier, Naomi and Eli Young present. Various fund raisers were discussed and it was decided to have another food sale at Littlefield Beaches in August. Also discussed briefly was the Western Maine Firemen's Association supper coming up. It was reported that one of the stew pots ordered had come in. The treasurer was not present at the meeting but it was reported that the last food sale went very well, netting nearly $70.

Lorraine Mills is caring for Tom and Linda Gibbs' dog this week while they are in Connecticut visiting her mother and sister.

SUNDAY RIVER SKI RESORT PERSONNEL were trained in woods firefighting techniques last week by members of the Maine Forest Service. The students—who are all permanent employees of the skiway—were helicoptered to a simulated fire in Riley Plantation. Bob Ripley, of the Forest Service, says the training should help the skiway personnel deal more effectively with any brush fires on the mountain, and he also hopes to be able to use them in fighting any fires in the general area.

So. Woodstock

By OLIVE DAVIS

Mrs. Marta Clements spent a week with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Karl Thompson at their cottage at Northport. The bayside cottage was a nice place to be during the hot days this last week.

Marta and her parents took a trip to the Penobscot Museum at Searsport. They visited the old home of a sea captain. There were several buildings that they toured while there which were also very interesting.

Mrs. Clements called on other relatives in the Belfast area during the week.

Esther and Olive Davis helped Eva Twitchell and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Billings with a food sale at Locke Mills beach Saturday morning. Kay Billings also helped and Bob took the money. They sold most all of the food.

Wednesday, Mrs. Vera Buck and Esther Davis had dinner with me in honor of Esther's birthday which was Thursday.

Friday, Deven Andrews had dinner with me as it was his birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Berryment and baby are living in Ellsworth Hathaway's trailer on the flat.

Esther Davis was given a birthday party the evening of July 17, at her home. Patricia Tibbetts, Esther's daughter, brought the supper of casseroles, salad and birthday cake. Patricia and her sister Lorraine Nowlin of Florida, presented their mother with a lovely

HANSCOM REUNION

The descendants of Hartley and Gertrude Sawyer Hanscom held a reunion on July 27, 1986, at the Hanscom place in North Newry. There were 50 in attendance. Family members came from Bethel, West Bethel, Newry, Locke Mills, Hollis Center, Buxton, Saco, East Waterboro, and Biddeford in Maine, and Kodiak, Alaska. The ones that came from the greatest distance were: Darlene, Peter, and April Leeman from Kodiak, Alaska. Peter is in the Coast Guard and has been stationed in Alaska and has been re-assigned to a base in Michigan.

A genealogy and family history of the Hanscom and Sawyer families was researched by Robert Parslow and Arthur Cummings and a copy was presented to each family.

MEETING HOUSE SOC. TO MEET

The Middle Intervale Meeting House Society will meet on Monday, Aug. 4. The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. and have Randy Bennett as a guest speaker. He will be presenting Moments.

Training course on fire fighting held at Sunday River

The Maine Department of Conservation Forest Fire Control Division conducted a fire fighting training course at D.W. McKeen's Restaurant on the Sunday River Access Road in Newry on July 21.

The day long course, hosted by the Sunday River Ski Area was conducted by District Ranger Bruce Small, Assistant Ranger Bill Kennedy, Ranger Pilot Otis Grey, and Unit Rangers Bob Ripley, Mark Mayhen and Joe Pelletier.

The fire fighting course included six hours of classroom training and two hours of field work. The field work consisted of five person squads being flown by helicopter to an area in Riley Plantation where fire fighting technique and fire line construction were discussed and practiced.

Attending the program were 25 ski area managers and employees as well as Bethel Fire Department Assistant Chief Bernie Rice and Newry Fire Chief Virgil Konkright.

Program participants will be trained fire fighters available to respond to local and district manpower requirements and to assist the Department of Conservation in extinguishing fires.

87 DIE ON MAINE ROADS THROUGH JUNE

The number of Maine highway fatalities in June followed the traditional pattern, surpassing those of all previous months of the year with 24.

The monthly Maine Highway Safety Committee report showed total deaths for the year to be 87 at the end of June, the lowest six-month total since 1982, and slightly below the five-year average of 90.

Fourteen of June's total highway deaths were alcohol-related...58 percent; last year it was 60 percent through June.

Only three of the 20 killed in auto/truck crashes through June were found to be wearing safety belts. One of the dead was a bicyclist; three were motorcyclists not wearing helmets.

Ground was broken and work started on the new addition to the Pleasant Valley Bible Church.

Bill and Davene Mitchell and Bobby of Putney, Vt., spent last Saturday night with her mother, Maxine Lovejoy and attended a family reunion at the home of Dick and Cathy Farren on Sunday.

West Paris

By MIRIAM INMAN

Mrs. Virginia Aridas, Medford, N.Y., spent a long weekend recently with her parents, Vernon and Miriam Inman.

Nancy Robertson and Kathleen returned on Thursday after visiting with her sister and husband, Cheryl and Drew Sholl and Kirby in Hightstown, N.J.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Inman entertained at their camp in Greenwood for a party for their grandson Tony Bouchard. It was his 10th birthday and the usual cake and ice cream were enjoyed. Those present were Joshua Adams, Douglas Penley, Chester Beauschene, Alan Lovejoy, Joel Waters, Walter, Kim, Vernie and Waltie Inman, Vicky Sanborn, Ginny Aridas, Laura Doggett, North Conway, Jane Sawyer of Lovell, Dixie Inman, Audrey and Abby, his parents Marshall and Susan Inman and brother Todd.

Vance and Connie Bacon, Stan and Maxine Cram and Audrey Hadley returned on Sunday after camping for a week at Cathedral Pines in Stratton.

Bob and Kathy Bessette, Emily and Marc of Fairfax, Vt., returned to their home on Monday after spending the week with Kathy's parents, Vance and Connie Bacon and brother Ken. While here, they enjoyed trips to Reid State Park and Storyland.

Paul and Ginger Dunham spent the past weekend at Belmont House's cottage at Bailey Island. They took Jake with them. On Saturday night Roland and Ruth Dunham were supper guests.

Joshua Dunham has been visiting his aunt and uncle, Cheryl and Drew Sholl and cousin Kirby in Hightstown, N.J., for a week. They will be bringing him home Friday night.

Carol Lamb, Poland, has been with her grandparents, Sayward and Cynthia Lamb, this week and enjoying the swimming at their cottage on North Pond.

Elizabeth Merrill of Waterford has been visiting her grandparents, Ivan and Ann Proctor, most of the week.

The West Paris Historical Society met at Bob and Beverly Glines' cottage on North Pond, Monday evening with 21 in attendance. A cookout/picnic was enjoyed before the meeting. The annual business meeting was held at which time the present slate of officers was elected for the ensuing year. The society plans to have another calendar printed and anyone having old pictures of West Paris that might be used for this purpose, could turn them in to the calendar committee or notify the president, Clarence Reid. The next meeting will be announced later.

On Saturday night, Aug. 2, the Old Parisians will be playing for a dance at the Otisfield Community Hall. This will benefit the Southern Oxford American Cancer Society.

Kim Inman and Vernie were in East Granby, Conn., last weekend visiting her sister, Linda Lawton.

Greenwood City

By COLISTA MORGAN

This morning as I started my day, the sun was battling its way through clouds to peep in at my window. A robin was shouting its happiness to the sky. The air was balmy at this time. Everywhere around the trees were heavy with green leaves and the fields wore carpets of velvet grass, my roses were in full bloom and their fragrance came to me as I opened the door. Just one of those July mornings common to our valley.

I watched the bright winged birds eat their breakfast and two chipmunks made quick rushes for seeds then with a squeak and a flip of the tail, a snatch and they were gone, only to return and repeat again and again. I went out briefly into the dawning day. The trees whispered, the mountains laughed low and soft. I lifted my eyes to the hills, all was peaceful, quiet, serene. Pines stirred and sang to me.

This is mine, warm and rich and will help me to face my days ahead.

Doris Hayes was visited by her sons Ardell and wife Betty, Auburn. Duane and his daughter and son of West Paris.

During the week we had 22 callers, neighbors, friends and relatives.

Fred and Rena Curtis were in Lewiston to see his doctor on Monday.

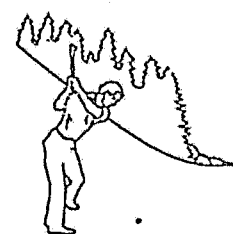

Zilpha DiArenzo has returned home from the hospital.

Meeting Tuesday morning of this week at the municipal building, the Newry board of selectmen appointed an alternate member of the planning board. William Cramton was named to replace Nancy Noppa, who was recently made a regular member of the board, replacing Stephen Yates who resigned.

In other business the selectmen received a request from Bernard Powers for a review of a personal property assessment. It was found that he had been over-taxed and an adjustment was made. A questionnaire was received from SAD #4 concerning state and local valuations, tax commitments, and population figures for the past four years. This information will be forwarded to the school district.

The next meeting of the planning board will be the evening of Aug. 6 to begin study of returned questionnaires concerning the comprehensive plan.

Andover

East Andover

By LAURA HUTCHINS

Another hot, humid summer day! Listening to what my father always referred to as "harvest flies" reminds me of days on the farm when, on a day like this, we could plan on a full day of haying. The "harvest flies" always make their song on the hottest, most humid days. Our lawn is turning brown and crunchy underfoot and the leaves of the garden plants hang limp in waiting for rain. We hesitate to water due to the low water table. Looks like a rain dance is in order!

Mrs. Lorena Simmons, Andover, entertained the following for breakfast Tuesday, July 22: Elaine Packard, Evelyn Wing and Thelma Remington, all of Bethel; Shirley Dunn and Sandra Clement of Andover.

The Andover High School class of 1966 will celebrate their 20th reunion on Aug. 9 at 6 p.m. at the Town and Country restaurant in Shelburne, N.H., with a social hour, dinner and dancing. The organizers hope for a good turnout. This was one of the largest graduating classes from Andover High.

Mrs. Aubrey White accompanied by her grandson, Troy Smith, visited Mrs. Lester White in East Andover on Thursday, July 24. Her daughter, Dorothy Wentzell from Utah is visiting in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Swain and family have been spending some time in the East Andover and Roxbury Pond area visiting family and friends.

Howard Glover has returned home after spending a week visiting his daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Hall of Ashburnham, Mass. Returning to East Andover with him were his two daughters, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Douglas Reed of Enfield, Conn. They plan to be in town for a few weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Carrie Dymont, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marian Dymont of Rumford spent a few days this week visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Meisner of East Andover.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Williams, Fitchburg, Mass., are vacationing at The Log Cabin in East Andover.

Wild raspberries and blueberries are ripe and being enjoyed by animals and humans, also the birds.

A moose crossed the field early this morning down near the woods below our garden. With all the flies around, it was probably hunting for a boggy area. It seems the dry conditions must make it difficult to find moist areas.

Members of the Ladies Aid Society met at the C.E.B. on Tuesday for a work meeting. Potholders were worked on and plans finalized for the sale to be held on Olde Home Day, Aug. 2. Anyone who would like to help tend tables or help with luncheon sandwiches, etc. in the kitchen is most welcome.

Anyone traveling the South Arm Road should be aware that the right-of-way is being cut up near the county line in preparation for reconstruction of 4 miles of the road. It is messy now but will be better in the end. The town officials ask for your patience and understanding.

The new street signs are up and add much to dress up the town. A fine job

40&8 AND LAFEMME PICNIC

Hanover

By DONNA WORCESTER

Hanover Village Store, owned and operated by Tom and Carri Pitcher, opened on July 23, 1986 at the site of Hanover General Store that was formerly owned by Frank and Bessey Etil. Hanover Village Store is near the intersection of Route 2 and the Howard Pond Road and was named to represent the village it is in. Mr. and Mrs. Pitcher and their three children recently moved to Hanover where Mrs. Pitcher had lived as a child.

Hanover Village Store has convenience items as well as self-service gas. The Pitchers welcome everyone to their new store and they are listing the following hours: Monday through Thursday, 6 a.m. to 9:30 p.m.; Friday and Saturday, 6 a.m. to 11 p.m.; and Sunday, 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. The first store at the site of Hanover Village Store was believed to have been operated by Albion Knapp in the 1850's. In 1892 Orlando Russell purchased the store and it was in the Russell family until 1953 when Henry Howe bought it. It was later operated by Gordon Howe.

The Hanover office of the United States Postal Service is located at the Hanover Village Store.

The annual summer sale and supper was held at Rumford Point Church on Saturday, July 19. Handmade and rummage items were offered for sale during the afternoon, followed by a supper put on by church members and volunteers. The sixth annual Rumford Center Community Flea Market and Food Sale was held July 24 at the Rumford Center meeting house. Homemade and yard sale items were placed on sale and several dealers displayed items for sale.

Rotary Club notes

The Bethel Rotary Club held its luncheon meeting at the Sudbury Inn on Tuesday of this week.

Visiting Rotarians and guests joining with the group were: Bill Lowther, Boonton, N.J.; Charles Feld, Marco Island, Fla.; El Stausebach and Gil Robinson, Wilmington, Del.; Bud Nielsen, Racine, Wis.; Rob Noll, guest of George Noll; Chapin Cutler, Palo Alto, Calif.; Curtis Cole, Oxford Hills; and Jim Wiswall, Birmingham, Ala.

Rick Whitney presided at this week's meeting. Dave Preble and Becky are enjoying a honeymoon visit in Bermuda.

The attendance contest barbecue which was held at the Bethel Inn Beach House was a well-enjoyed success. Chief Chef Dewaine Craig and his assistants did a great job with the lobsters, steaks, etc., and Romeo Baker held forth on the balcony. Now for the real fun part when the losers will dig into their jeans to pay the bill.

The program chairman was Al Carson. His guest speaker was unable to make an appearance. A substitute program included a report make by John Elliot on the attendance party and also John Head gave an overview of the funds generated

Mr. and Mrs. Kevin Gould

GOULD - MORGAN

Miss Kimberly Morgan and Kevin Gould were united in marriage by candle light at the West Parish Congregational Church in Bethel, the evening of June 21. The Rev. Brendon Bass performed the double ring ceremony.

Organ music was played by Mary Valentine. Vocalist and pianist was Thea Dunn.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olin Morgan of Mason Street, Bethel.

The bridegroom is the son of George Gould, and the grandson of the late Malcolm and Jessamine Gould of Chandler Hill, Bethel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a traditional gown made of white satin trimmed in lace with full train, made by Nicole Merrill of Bethel. Her veil fell from a crown of white silk flowers, and she carried a bouquet of orchids and pink sweetheart roses mixed with falling ivy and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Dawn Roberts of Lewiston, wore a long gown of rose colored taffeta with a wreath of baby's breath with pink ribbon in her chair, and by the Mollycoddett Day activities. John MacMunn provided Rotary information. His presentation concerned testing in a business management context.

Members of the board of directors are reminded that the next meeting of the board will be held at the Casco Bank at 7 a.m. on Aug. 5.

Another Mollycoddett Day has come and gone. Amen! The spirit of cooperation displayed by Rotarians and wives in getting the job done to a successful conclusion takes away much of the stress of the hard work. Our sincere thanks to all. A special thank you to Les Otten for the use of a deep fat fryer and pans, used to prepare our fried clams, and also to all our supporters who purchased our meals. The project is the Rotary Club's major fund raiser for the year.

Overheard was an appropriate comment made by one of the Rotarians to the effect that a new attendance contest would be in order. Do you all get the picture?

The couple now reside in Locke Mills.

carried three sweetheart roses. Bridesmaids, wearing long pink gowns and also with wreaths of baby's breath and carrying one pink rose, were Sandy Stiles, Mandi Stiles, Debbie DeGreenia, and Terry Pettilo, all of Gorham, N.H., and Mary Morgan of Bethel.

The groom was attired in a grey tuxedo, as were the best man, George Gould, and the ushers, Robert Morgan, Raymond Morgan, Malcolm Gould, all of Bethel; Rodney Cary, Bryant Pond, and Danny DeGreenia of Gorham, N.H.

The flower girl was Desiree Morgan of Bethel and the ringbearer was Matthew Pettilo of Gorham, N.H.

All flower arrangements were by the Unicorn Flower Shop, Bethel.

The reception was held at the South Ridge Lodge, Sunday River.

Kim is now employed by Hanover Dowel Inc. Kevin, a former second class petty officer in the U.S. Navy, is now employed by the State of Maine Department of Transportation. Both are graduates of Telstar Regional High School.

The couple now reside in Locke Mills.

MASS. PHOTOGRAPHER EXHIBITING SATURDAY AT ANDOVER'S OLDE HOME DAY

Professional photographer Angelo Katsos of Somerville, Mass., will display photography of Andover in the four seasons in keeping with the Olde Home Day theme of "Andover, a Home for All Seasons." Olde Home Day will take place on Saturday, Aug. 2.

Mr. Katsos is a retired teacher, educated at Boston State College, Fitchburg State College, Harvard Extension and the University of New Mexico.

He has done extensive photography work among the Indian tribes of the southwest and has been adopted by the Pueblo tribe. His Indian photographs were on display in Andover on Olde Home Day, 1984.

Other works by Mr. Katsos have been displayed at the Christmas Tree Gallery, Manteo, N.C.; the 4th Street Photo Gallery, New York City; the Cambridge Latin School and Jay's, both in Cambridge, Mass.; The Here Today Gallery, Boston, and the Piedmont Art Association, Martinsville, Va., which is an affiliate of the University of Virginia Fine Arts School.

CARD OF THANKS

Dear People,

Our house was destroyed by fire last Saturday night through an act of God. We want to thank all those people who did the best that they could, especially Erlon Hatstat who worked all evening with his skidder towing the fire trucks up the hill, Charlie McCabe, and Reggie Cairns who saved the truck by pushing it out of the way, the North Waterford and East Stoneham Fire Departments, Brad Grover, John Butters, Mike Inman, Miles Millet, Joe St. Hilaire, and other firemen whose names we don't know, and John Gauthier for finding us to inform us of the bad news before we returned home that evening.

We want to thank the Leightons for caring about our kitties. All the cats survived—three kittens, mother and tom.

Thanks to the Albany Church Circle, Norman Rust, Jim Perkins, the Laphams, relatives, parents, neighbors, and friends who have given us the beginnings of a new household. Thanks to Wanda Day and Rick McAllister who have agreed to move out of our rental house.

On Sunday, the day after the fire we drove to North Conway, picked up two tents and 4 sleeping bags. When we returned, we looked in our truck which was parked down by the road and found it stuffed with food, clothing and the necessities to set up housekeeping again.

Lucy started laughing and crying at the same time. You people are so wonderful. Thank you so much.

Last but not least we want to thank God for all our blessings. Thank you, God, we are all safe and still have each other. Thank you God for the gardens, the stonehouse, our friends and our lives.

Hastings receives honorary doctorate from Curry College

Edward H. Hastings, whose family homestead on Broad Street in Bethel has been his summer residence for many years, recently received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree from Curry College in Milton, Mass.

Dr. Hastings, who had been a professor, and later dean, at Curry since 1964, retired from the college on June 30. He is now a permanent resident of Bethel.

He joined the Curry faculty 22 years ago after serving for a number of years on the English faculty at Clark University. During his long tenure at Curry, he served in a variety of capacities as well as teaching. An accomplished organist and composer of liturgical works, he formerly directed the Curry College Concert Choir and was the organist and choirmaster at the First Parish Church in Milton for 15 years.

Holder of an undergraduate degree from Wesleyan University and a graduate degree from Harvard University, he was Curry's Dean of the College for the past nine years. Despite his position as the top academic administrator, teaching was his first love. He combined some teaching as a professor of English with his busy schedule as dean.

In part Dr. Hastings' diploma, presented by Dr. William L. Boyle, Jr., President of Curry College, read as follows:

"...Curry's unique Dean of the College since 1977; able Professor of English and a member of Curry's distinguished faculty since 1964; outstanding musician; skilled orator as well as master of the written word; staunch counselor; civic leader; country squire; and dear friend, your forthcoming retirement shall leave a distinct void in our hearts and in our lives. Yet we rejoice that you are retiring in style, with flags flying and with great love and respect attending. In fact, Curry College is honored in honoring you this day.

"A New England gentleman born, bred, and educated, you already had earned degrees from Wesleyan University and from Harvard University. A former member of the Clark University faculty, it was Curry which you literally made your life. The truly fine College we know today is in many ways a reflection of your own years of dedicated effort, honesty, and integrity. Reflective highlights of progress made during your Deanship in particular include our successful overall re-accreditations; the launching and ultimate accreditations of both the baccalaureate Nursing Program and the M.Ed. program; the advent of a major academic computer presence on campus; the continuous strengthening of Curry's faculty and its varied academic offerings; the pervasive focus upon individualized excellence; and much more. So, on behalf of the entire College, we thank you for all you have done for us; we wish you the very best as you retire to the historic Hastings homestead in Bethel, Maine; and we are most genuinely happy that for evermore you shall be known well and truly as Dr. Hastings."

DEAN EDWARD H. HASTINGS, OF BETHEL, who served at Curry College, in Milton, Mass., for 22 years, received an honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degree at the college's 107th annual commencement exercises recently. Dr. Hastings retired June 30 and moved to his family homestead in Bethel.

Sudbury Canada Days in Bethel, Aug. 9-10

The seventh annual Sudbury Canada Days, Bethel Historical Society's summer heritage festival will be held on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 9 and 10, this year at the society's Broad Street headquarters, the Dr. Moses Mason House on Broad Street. Featured during the two day event will be a wide variety of activities for all ages. Sudbury Canada was Bethel's original name in use between 1768 and 1796.

Kicking off the activities will be the annual children's parade which will march around the society's grounds. Also beginning the afternoon will be the opening of the annual flower show in the society's period house museum as well as a variety of old time children's games, craft demonstrations and exhibits, a historical film series ("Hammerman in Williamsburg," "John Marin," "Witches of Salem," "Cathedral Engineers," "Harp-sichord Builder," "American Folk Art" plus a video presentation of "From Stump to Ship") and an art show featuring local artists.

Later on Saturday afternoon there will be horseshoe, croquet and badminton tournaments, an ice cream eating contest and a drawing for the door prize. At 5 p.m. there will be the annual log driver's bean supper followed by the annual old-time variety show.

On Sunday there will be the annual old fashioned church service at the West Parish Congregational Church at 10:30 and in the afternoon it will still be possible to see the flower show in the museum and the historical film series will continue along with the art show.

ROBERT J. ZAWORSKI

Robert J. Zaworski of Corvallis, Ore., was pronounced dead at the Stephens Memorial Hospital in Norway, where he was transported by ambulance after being stricken ill suddenly on Thursday morning, July 24, 1986, while visiting relatives in the Locke Mills area.

He was born Jan. 24, 1926 at Portland, Ore., the son of Joseph R. and Lula Warnock Zaworski. He attended Portland schools and received degrees in mechanical engineering from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Boston. He was a U.S. Navy veteran and served during World War II and the Korean Conflict. He married the former Priscilla Ring on April 14, 1948, and had lived in Corvallis since 1958. He was a professor at Oregon State University at Corvallis where he taught mechanical engineering. He was a member of the First Congregational Church of Christ in Corvallis, Ore., and a member of the American Society of Engineers.

Mr. Zaworski is survived by his wife of Corvallis, Ore.; three sons, Rev. James W. Zaworski of Juneau, Wis., Joseph R. Zaworski of Corvallis, Ore., and Rev. David D. Zaworski of Almira, Wash.; two daughters, Deborah Broders of Richland, Wash., and Ruth F. Price of Kennewick, Wash.; two sisters, Audrey Kocarnik of Lake Oswego, Ore., and Sister Wanda Marie Jordan of Portland, Ore.; two brothers, Terrance R. Jordan of El Paso, Tex., and Phillip Jordan of Lake Oswego, Ore.; and five grandchildren.

BERTHA B. LEWIS

Mrs. Bertha B. Lewis of Farmington, N.H., died Monday, July 21, 1986, at Higgins Hospital, Wolfeboro, N.H., where she had been a patient for three weeks.

She was born Sept. 19, 1915, at Mason Township, Maine, the daughter of Lincoln and Hazel Buckman Burnham.

A resident of Farmington for more than 20 years, she was formerly of Upton and Rumford, Maine. Mrs. Lewis attended schools in Upton and was employed, for a short time, with the Livermore Falls Shoe Company. She was a member of the First Baptist Church and the Historical Society of Farmington, N.H. She was formerly very active with the Upton (Maine) Ladies Aid Society. She married Benjamin Lewis, who died in 1980.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Edith Garey of West Peru; three brothers, Lewis Burnham of West Pavilion, N.Y., Perley Burnham and Everett Burnham, both of Mexico; five sisters, Mrs. Myrtle Tripp of Farmington, N.H., Mrs. Glennis Murphy and Mrs. Mavis Dowland, both of Dixfield; Mrs. Inez Leblanc of Norway, and Mrs. Davis (Molly) Murphy of Mexico; seven grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at the Meador and Son Funeral Home, Rumford, with Rev. Harold Richards officiating. Interment was at the Upton Cemetery.

WOODSTOCK CONSERVATION COMMISSION IS ACTIVE

The Woodstock Conservation Commission recently sent a water sample of the "public spring" on Route 26 in Woodstock to the Public Health Laboratory. The water was tested for coliform bacteria, nitrates and nitrites. The coliform count was "0" and the levels of nitrates and nitrites were extremely low. The water was deemed "Satisfactory." The Conservation Commission will test the water periodically.

This week, two students from the Woodstock Elementary School will attend the Maine Conservation School on Lake Christopher with scholarships given to them by the Conservation Commission. The Conservation Commission has been conducting a fundraising for scholarships and other educational programs having to do with the environment by selling beautiful aerial photographs of Lake Christopher, Twitchell Pond, North and South Ponds taken in autumn. Further information can be obtained from Marcel Polak at 665-2577.

The glass recycling at the Greenwood-Woodstock Transfer Station is proving very successful by reducing the amount of solid waste the towns have to pay to process. In addition to saving the towns the above costs, the glass is sold to recyclers, and thus brings in additional money. In the future it is hoped that paper and cardboard can be recycled as well.

The members of the Woodstock Conservation Commission are Jim Chandler, Marcel Polak, Nancy Willard, and Diane York. The next meeting will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 20, at 7 p.m. at the Woodstock Town Hall. The public is welcome and new members for the Conservation Commission are needed.
